

Internship Job Description

Policy & Advocacy - Domestic Resource Mobilisation (DRM)

Position Title: Policy & Advocacy - Domestic Resource Mobilisation (DRM) Intern.

Reports To: Policy & Advocacy Officer, Domestic Resource Mobilisation.

Role Overview

The Debt and Resource Mobilization (DRM) Intern will assist the team in research, data analysis, and the preparation of reports related to resource mobilization strategies in Africa and public finance management. The intern will help track trends on IFFs, monitor fiscal policies and contribute to advocacy on DRM related issues.

Key Responsibilities

- Assist with research, assist in conducting policy analysis and policy synopsis on the domestic resource mobilization (DRM) landscape in Africa, with a focus on taxation, illicit financial flows (IFFs), and natural resource governance.
- Assist in drafting reports, policy briefs, and advocacy materials focused on strengthening DRM architecture in African countries.
- Track and analyze fiscal stability, external flows, and the impact of resource-backed loans in Africa.
- Participate in stakeholder engagement initiatives, including consultations with African policymakers and civil society organizations on DRM issues.
- Provide support for the planning and execution of webinars, workshops, and conferences related to DRM.
- Assist with administrative tasks related to the implementation of AFRODAD's DRM strategy.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Economics, Finance, Public Policy, or Development studies.
- Strong research skills and ability to process complex financial data.
- Interest in African economic development and public finance issues.
- Ability to work independently and within a team

Learning Outcomes

- Develop in-depth knowledge of domestic resource mobilisation challenges and solutions in Africa.
- Gain experience in policy research and advocacy for improving fiscal policies.
- Strengthen project management and communication skills in a professional setting.
